Do We Need To Engage Civil Society Organizations in Implementing SDGs?

Livia Bizikova, Director, SDG Knowledge Program, IISD; and Fraser Reilly-King, Senior Policy Analyst, Canadian Council for International Co-operation

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) are a shared agenda for all of us. Practically, this means that there are numerous entry points in which to engage: from consultations and defining new policies and programs, to implementing specific goals, to changing cultures, behaviours and practices – all necessary to realize the transformative potential of the SDGs.

LAC Countries Conclude Seventh Round of Negotiations on Principle 10

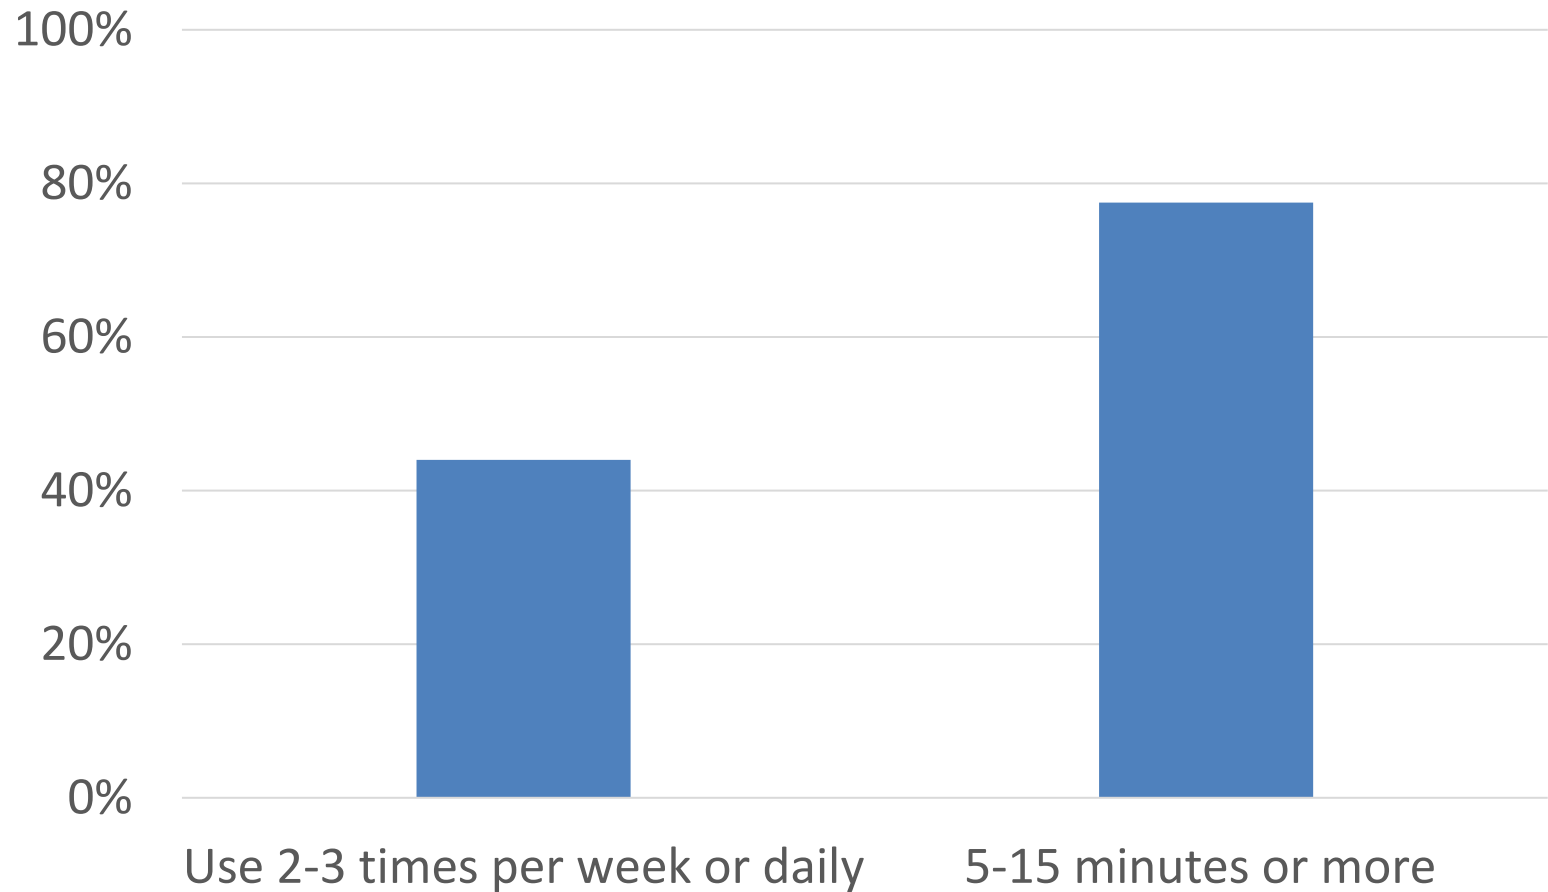

4 August 2017: Representatives from 24 countries in Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) resumed negotiations on a regional agreement that will enable access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters, and the promotion of a new development paradigm that prioritizes equality and environmental sustainability.

Review Panel Proposes Strengthening UN-Habitat, Establishing 'UN-Urban'

3 August 2017: A high-level review panel tasked with reviewing the role and mandate of the UN Human Settlements Programme (UN-HABITAT) has proposed strengthening UN-HABITAT and establishing an independent coordinating mechanism, 'UN-Urban'. The panel is also calling for UN-HABITAT to have a new governance structure based on universal membership, a small Policy Board,
