

Statement from the Mexican government

“Mexico endorses the commitment to continue strengthening participation in the application of the Strategic Approach. We support a broader instrument that contemplates the adoption of the mechanisms and additional measures proposed which will support the implementation of SAICM to achieve greater multisectoral commitment, monitor progress, share best practices and lessons learned among countries that facing similar challenges, as well as strengthen the capacities of interested Parties to move towards reasoning management of chemicals beyond 2020.”